DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
3. Regarding claim 1, the phrase "in particular" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).
4. Claims 1 and 3 recite "its". It is not clear what "it" is.
5. Claim 2 recites "it". It is not clear what "it" is.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sodergreen [Pat. No. 2,086,338]

Art Unit: 1761

Sodergreen teaches a method for sterilizing food by injecting steam (Figure 1, #24), baffled which act as static mixers (Figure 1, #28 & 30), an agitator which acts as a dynamic mixer (Figure 1, #11), and a body which acts as a tubular tank (Figure 1, #2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Smith [Pat. No. 5,906,853] in view of Palm [Pat. No. 5,425,581].

Smith teaches a method for heating food by injecting steam (Figure 1, #14) and agitators which act as dynamic mixers (Figure 1, #16 & 18). Smith does not recite a static mixer with baffles. Palm teaches a steam injector comprising static mixing baffles (Figures 8-9). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to incorporate the static mixing steam injector of Palm into the invention of Smith since both are directed to methods of mixing, since Smith already included a steam injector (Figure 1, #14) but simply did not describe it in detail, and since the static mixing steam injector of Palm provided a means for injecting steam while also providing improved mixing of the steam and food.

Art Unit: 1761

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Rasmussen [Pat. No. 5,968,575], Parsons et al [Pat. No. 6,509,049], Ehrfeld et al [Pat. No. 4,514,095], Harney et al [Pat. No. 2,772,863], Badertscher et al [Pat. No. 5,863,587], Stewart Jr et al [Pat. No. 3,579,631], Janovtchik [Pat. No. 4,148,933], and Grosz-Roell et al [Pat. No. 4,919,541] teach methods of heating food.
